Dear Esteemed Cincinnati Magazine Editors:

I am writing to wholeheartedly recommend Kimberly Kennedy as a writer, editor, or wordsmith-at-large for the Baby Guide. I had the pleasure to work with her on a series of guest blog posts for my Baby Unplugged initiative, and her insights were insightful, prompt, helpful, and utterly coherent with what I was trying to accomplish. She even managed to inspire me to prune my verbiage in a positive, friendly way, which is a Herculean challenge. I would be thrilled to work with her again, and strongly believe that Kimberly would be an asset to Baby Guide, Cincinnati Magazine, and related publications.

Thank you and best regards,
